DUKE'S
WAIKIKI

Aloha WELCOME TO DUKE'S WAIKIKI

It's what you came for- authentic Waikiki celebrated with the spirit of Aloha. You are invited to experience old Waikiki at Duke's, the world-famous restaurant named for Hawaii's favorite son, Duke Kahanamoku. It is Waikiki as it should be, and just the beginning of what makes hosting your event at Duke's Waikiki truly memorable.

Duke's Canoe Club is reminiscent of a gentler and younger Waikiki, when outrigger canoeing and surfing defined the era, the Waikiki beach boys worked and played in the Pacific and Duke was the undisputed, "King of the ocean."

All Duke's Waikiki private evening functions are held on the Ali'i Lanai. This beautiful outdoor patio sits just steps from the sand and surf boasting panoramic views of Diamond Head and all of Waikiki beach...It is breathtaking.

The relaxing island style atmosphere at Duke's is just as tempting as the restaurant's culinary offerings. Chef Matthew Young's menus offer an array of options featuring the best of Hawaii Regional Cuisine, fresh Hawaiian seafood and all natural locally-sourced cuts of meat. Every event is served with the warm, personalized service that our guests have come to expect from the Duke's 'ohana.

Whether you're hosting an intimate gathering or large-scale reception with Diamond Head and Waikiki Beach as your backdrop, we promise to help you create timeless memories and experience the true spirit of Aloha with your group.
